

MANAGER

(Payclass 12; Contract Post)

SCHOOL OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY FACULTY OF SCIENCE

The School of IT (SIT) at the University of Cape Town aims to be a leading African school for research and study of Computer Science and Information Systems, producing world class graduates and research while playing a positive role in the upliftment and empowerment of our community. This is only possible through the excellent work of our academic staff in research and teaching as well as strong industry involvement. We have a dual mandate: to bring the best of IT knowledge to the classroom and to assist in the production of IT knowledge through active research and publication. For more information, please see <https://sit.uct.ac.za/>

The school seeks to appoint a full-time Manager on a five-year contract. The main purpose of this position is Fundraising, Marketing, Operations and Strategic Management, Financial Management, and Human Resource Management for the school. The successful candidate will be involved in high-level decision making and actively facilitate various activities for the school.
